Each team was supposed to have the main coordinator that would facilitate team communications and scheduling for a period of time, and all team members should have had this role during the semester. Please clearly indicate which team members were responsible for coordination and during what time, as well as your perception of how well they performed in their duties.

Morissa is the main coordinator

What changes with respect to your team and your team mates would you suggest, if you were to be a part of the same team again?

Aaron give a hand to Morissa or HTML5 Part.

We can persuade them to use ajax, user and push message system, it's very useful for their store

What were some problems and issues with your team and your team mates? Please feel free to elaborate on the details.

No. only have small issue is they may didn't look at the PHP

On a scale from 1 (worst) to 10 (best), please rate your own and your team members' performance on the project:
